AND should the mortgagee, by reason of any such insurance against loss or damage by fire or tornado, or by other casualties or contingencies, as aforesaid, receive any sum or sums of money for any damage by fire or tornado, or by other casualties or contingencies, in the said building or buildings, such amount may be retained and applied by it toward payment of the amount hereby secured; or the same may be paid over, either wholly or in part, to the said mortgagor... necessary, here or assigns, to enable such parties to repair said buildings or to erect new buildings in their place, or for any other purpose or object satisfactory to the mortgagee, without affecting the lien of this mortgage for the full amount secured thereby hereon such damage by fire or tornado, or by other casualties or contingencies, or such payment over, such place.

In case of default in the payment of any part of the principal indebtedness, or of any part of the interest, at the time the same becomes due, or in the case of failure to keep insured for the benefit of the mortgagee the houses and buildings on the premises against fire and tornado, and other casualties or contingencies, as herein provided, or in case of failure to pay any sum or sums of money to secure this on said property within the time required by law; in either of said cases the mortgagee shall be entitled to assign the entire debt due and to institute foreclosure proceedings.

And it is further covenanted and agreed that in the event of the death of the mortgagor after the date of this mortgage, or any law of the State of South Carolina changing the value of land, for the purpose of taxing any lien thereon, or changing in any way the laws now in force for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by mortgage for State or local purposes, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, or so to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the said mortgagee, without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.

And in case proceedings for foreclosure shall be instituted the mortgagor... do and does hereby assign the rents and profits arising or to arise from the mortgaged premises as additional security for this loan, and agree that any Justice of the Peace or other court having jurisdiction of the premises, upon a return of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the premises, and collect the rents and profits and apply the net proceeds (after paying costs of reasonable) upon and out of interest, costs and expenses, without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually received.

Werts, the said mortgagee, do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagor the sum or sums of money aforesaid, with interest thereon, if any be due according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, and any and all other sums which may become due and payable hereunder, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the said parties that said mortgagee shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the said Premises until default shall be made as herein provided.
