

singular the said premises unto the said mortgagee, its successors and assigns, from and against us, our Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, and every person whomsoever lawfully claiming, or to claim the same or any part thereof.

And we, the said mortgagors, agree to insure the buildings on said land for not less than One Thousand Dollars, in a company or companies which shall be acceptable to the mortgagee, and keep the same insured from loss or damage by fire during the continuation of this mortgage, and make loss under the policy or policies of insurance payable to the mortgagee, and that in the event we shall at any time fail to do so, then the said mortgagee may cause the same to be insured as above provided and be reimbursed for the premium and expense of such insurance under this mortgage. Upon failure of the mortgagors to pay any insurance premium or any taxes or other public assessment or any part thereof the mortgagee may at his option declare the full amount of this mortgage due and payable.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, NEVERTHELESS, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these presents, that if we the said mortgagors, do and shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the said debt or sum of money aforesaid, with interest thereon, if any shall be due, according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, then this deed of bargain and sale shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED, by and between the said parties, that we, the mortgagors, are to hold and enjoy the said premises until default of payment shall be made.

And if at any time any part of said debt, or interest thereon, be past due and unpaid, we hereby assign the rents and profits of the above described premises to said mortgagee, its successors or assigns, and agree that any Judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of said State may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver, with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, applying the net proceeds thereof (after paying costs of collection) upon said debt, interest, costs and expenses without liability to account for anything more than the rents and the profits actually collected.

WITNESS our hands and seals this 30th day of September, 1948.
