It is hereby mutually agreed between the parties hereto that all the foregoing property shall to the extent permitted by law be deemed to be affixed to the real property.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, all and singular the said premises unto the Mortgagee, its successors and assigns forever.

THE MORTGAGOR HEREBY COVENANTS AND AGREES WITH THE MORTGAGEE:

That it is lawfully seized of the premises hereinabove described in fee simple absolute, that it has good right and lawful authority to sell, convey, or encumber the same, and that the premises are free and clear of all liens and encumbrances whatsoever. The Mortgagor further covenants to warrant and forever defend all and singular the premises unto the Mortgagee, from and against the Mortgagor and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.

That it will pay the indebtedness hereby secured and if default be made in the payment of any installment of principal or interest or in performance of any of the covenants, stipulations, or agreements herein contained, the Mortgagee, at its option and without notice, shall have the right to declare the entire sum hereby secured due and to foreclose this mortgage in the manner provided by law, whether said note (bond) is due by lapse of time or not; and if any action or suit brought for the foreclosure of this mortgage or the collection of said note (bond), the Mortgagor will pay such attorney's fees as the court may adjudge reasonable in such suit or action.

Privilege is reserved to pay the debt in whole or in an amount equal to one or more monthly payments on principal next due, on the first day of any month prior to maturity upon at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the holder. If this debt is paid in full prior to maturity and while insured under the National Housing Act, all parties liable for payment thereof hereby agree to be jointly and severally bound to pay to the holder hereof the adjusted premium charge referred to in Section 2, Article III, of the applicable Regulations for Section 608; provided that such adjusted premium charge shall not exceed the aggregate amount of premium charges which would have been payable if the mortgage had continued to be insured until maturity and shall be subject to all exceptions contained in said Regulations.

In the event of prepayment in any one calendar year of an amount in excess of 15% of the original principal amount of the Note, the Mortgagor shall pay to the holder of such Note for its own account simultaneously with the making of any such payment, bringing the total for the year in excess of 15% and as a condition precedent to and as consideration for the privilege of making prepayments in excess of 15% of the original principal sum in any one calendar year additional sums (which shall not be applied in reduction of principal) based upon the amount of such excess during the following periods of the loan: 3% during the first ten (10) years, 2% during the next ten (10) years, 1% thereafter. The above prepayment premium is in addition to the adjusted premium charge referred to in Section 2, Article III of the applicable regulations for Section 608.

That in order more fully to protect the security of this mortgage, the Mortgagor will pay to the Mortgagee in addition to the monthly payments of principal and interest under the terms of the note (bond) secured hereby and concurrently therewith monthly on the first day of each month after the date hereof and continuing until the said note (bond) is fully paid, the following sums:

- (a) If and so long as said note or bond of even date and this mortgage are insured under the provisions of the National Housing Act, an amount sufficient to accumulate in the hands of the Mortgagee one month prior to its due date, the annual mortgage insurance premium, in order to provide the Mortgagee with funds to pay such premium to the Federal Housing Commissioner pursuant to Section 608 of the National Housing Act, as amended, and Regulations thereunder.
- (b) A sum equal to the ground rents, if any, next due, plus the premiums that will next become due and payable on policies of fire and other hazard insurance covering the premises herein described, plus water rates, taxes, and assessments next due on the premises covered hereby (all as estimated by the Mortgagee) less all sums already paid therefor divided by the number of months to elapse before one month prior to the date when such ground rents, premiums, water rates, taxes and assessments will become delinquent, such sums to be held by the Mortgagee in trust to pay said ground rents, premiums, water rates, taxes, and special assessments.
- (c) All payments mentioned in the two preceding subsections of this paragraph and all payments to be made under the note (bond) secured hereby shall be added together and the aggregate amount thereof shall be paid by the Mortgagor each month in a single payment to be applied by the Mortgagee to the following items in the order set forth:
 - (i) premium charges under the contract of insurance with the Federal Housing Commissioner;
 - (ii) ground rents, if any, taxes, water rates, assessments, fire and other hazard insurance premiums;
 - (iii) interest on the note (bond) secured hereby; and
 - (iv) amortization of the principal of said note (bond).

Any deficiency in the amount of any such aggregate monthly payments shall, unless made good by the Mortgagor prior to the due date of the next such payment, constitute an event of default under this mortgage.

Any excess funds accumulated under (b) of the preceding paragraph remaining after payment of the items therein mentioned, shall be credited to subsequent monthly payments of the same nature required thereunder; but if any such item shall exceed the estimate therefor the Mortgagor shall without demand forthwith make good the deficiency. Failure to do so before the due date of such item shall be a default hereunder. In case of termination of the Contract of Mortgage Insurance by prepayment of the mortgage in full, or otherwise (except as hereinafter provided), accumulations under (a) of the next preceding paragraph hereof not required to meet payments due under the Contract of Mortgage Insurance, shall be credited to the Mortgagor. If the property is sold under foreclosure or is otherwise acquired by the Mortgagee after default, any remaining balance of the accumulations under (b) of the next preceding paragraph shall be credited to the principal of the mortgage as of the date of the commencement of foreclosure proceedings or as of the date the property is otherwise acquired; and accumulations under (a) thereof shall be likewise credited unless required to pay sums due the Commissioner under the Contract of Mortgage Insurance.

That Mortgagor will pay all taxes, assessments, water rates, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines, or impositions, for which provision has not been made by payments made as hereinbefore provided in paragraph (b) above and in default thereof the Mortgagee may pay the same; and that it will promptly deliver the official receipts therefor to the Mortgagee. If the Mortgagor fails to make any payments provided for in this paragraph or any other payments for taxes, assessments, or the like, the Mortgagee may pay the same, and all sums so paid shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum (4%) per annum from the date of such advance and shall be secured by this mortgage.

That the Mortgagor will keep the improvements, now existing or hereafter erected on the mortgaged property insured against loss by fire and such other hazards, casualties, and contingencies, as may be stipulated by the Commissioner upon the insurance of the mortgage and other hazards as may be required from time to time by the Mortgagee, and all such insurance shall be carried in such companies and be for such periods as may be required by the Mortgagee, and be in an amount which will comply with the coinsurance clause applicable to the location and character of the property but not less than eighty per centum (80%) of the actual cash value of the
