and truly pay, or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the debt or sum of money as aforesaid, with interest thereon, if any shall be due, according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, then this deed of bargain and sale shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED, by and between the said parties, that I, the mortgagor, am to hold and enjoy the said premises until default of payment shall be made.

And if at any time any part of said debt, or interest thereon, be past due and unpaid I hereby assign the rents and profits of the above described premises to said mortgagee, or its successors and assigns, and agree that any Judge of the Circuit Court of said State may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver, with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, applying the net proceeds thereof (after paying costs of collection) upon said debt, interest, costs and expenses without liability to account for anything more than the rents and the profits actually collected.

WITNESS my hand and seal this 11th day of September, 1951.
