FIRST MORTGAGE FOUR PER CENT BEARER NOTES

The Greenville Rescue Mission, a corporation, hereinafter called the Mission, for value received, promises to pay to the bearer the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, in legal tender of the United States, at the Peoples National Bank, Greenville, South Carolina, on the _____ day of March, 1956, and to pay interest thereon at the rate of four per cent per annum from date hereof, payable semi-annually, at the Peoples National Bank every six months until the payment or redemption of this note, on presentation of this note. If default be made in the payment of any installment of interest, or of any of said notes, when the same shall become due, and such default shall continue for the period of thirty days after demand, the principal of this note may become immediately due and payable, in the manner provided in the mortgage hereinafter mentioned.

This note is one of a series of <sup>mortgage</sup> notes of like form bearing ~~date this day~~, which mortgage indebtedness was duly authorized and created by the unanimous vote of the trustees of the Mission, in the manner and form prescribed by law.

The payment of the principal and interest of this note, and of all other of said notes, is secured by a first mortgage duly executed by the Mission to the Peoples National Bank of Greenville, South Carolina, as trustee, conveying and transferring to said trustee in trust for the holders of all of said notes, all of the real property now owned and belonging to said Mission, as described in said mortgage.

Said Mission reserves to itself the right to redeem all or any of said notes on any interest due date, and prior to the maturity of said notes, on the payment of the par value of the notes redeemed, as provided in said mortgage. This note is issued and is held subject to all the provisions of said mortgage.
