

AND should the mortgagee by reason of any such failure to keep insured for the benefit of the mortgagee the houses and buildings on the premises against fire and tornado risk, as herein provided, or in case of failure to pay any taxes or assessments to become due on said property within the time required by law; in either of said cases the mortgagee shall be entitled to declare the entire debt due and to institute foreclosure proceedings.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the said parties that said mortgagor shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the said Premises until default shall be made as herein provided.

WITNESS our hand and seal this 18th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-seven and in the one hundred and eighty-first year of the Independence of the United States of America.

And it is further covenanted and agreed that in the event of the passage, after the date of this mortgage, of any law of the State of South Carolina deducting from the value of land, for the purpose of taxing any lien thereon, or changing in any way the laws now in force for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by Mortgage for State or local purposes, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, so as to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the said Mortgagee, without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.

And in case proceedings for foreclosure shall be instituted, the mortgagor agree to and does hereby assign the rents and profits arising or to arise from the mortgaged premises as additional security for this loan, and agree that any Judge of jurisdiction may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the premises, and collect the rents and profits and apply the net proceeds (after paying costs of receivership) upon said debt, interests, costs and expenses, without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually received.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these Presents, that if we, the said mortgagor, do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the debt or sum of money aforesaid with interest thereon, if any be due according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, and any and all other sums which may become due and payable hereunder, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the said parties that said mortgagor shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the said Premises until default shall be made as herein provided.

WITNESS our hand and seal this 18th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-seven and in the one hundred and eighty-first year of the Independence of the United States of America.
