

859-176

The Mortgagors shall fail to pay any premium for any insurance above mentioned or any taxes, assessment, levy or charge, when due, the Insurance Company may, at its option, make such payments and in such case the amounts so paid shall immediately become debts due to the Insurance Company by the Mortgagors, and in such case the amounts so paid shall immediately be secured by this mortgage to the same extent as the note hereinabove described.

The Insurance Company shall have the right, after default in any of the terms, covenants or agreements herein contained, or contained in the aforesaid note, to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rents and profits from the premises hereinbefore described without consideration of the value of the premises or the solvency of any person liable for the payment of the amounts then owing, and all amounts collected by the receiver shall, after expenses of the receivership, be applied to the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured.

In case the Insurance Company shall voluntarily or otherwise become a party to any suit or legal proceeding to protect the property herein described by the title thereto, or to protect the lien of this mortgage, the Mortgagors will immediately reimburse the Insurance Company for any amounts paid by it in connection with any such suit or proceeding, including all costs, expenses and attorney's fees, and such payments shall be secured by this mortgage to the same extent as the note hereinabove described.

If there shall be any default in the payment, in accordance with its terms, of the note secured hereby of any other indebtedness hereby secured, when due, or in the event of failure to comply with any of the covenants or agreements contained in this mortgage, or in the event of actual or threatened demolition or injury or waste to any of the property covered by this mortgage which may impair its value, then and in any such event, the entire indebtedness secured by this mortgage shall, at the option of the Insurance Company, become at once due and payable, regardless of the maturity date thereof, and the Insurance Company may thereupon or at any time thereafter institute foreclosure proceedings.

IT IS FURTHER COVENANTED AND AGREED that in the event of the passage, after the date of this mortgage, of any law of the State of South Carolina by virtue of which any tax may be levied or assessed against or based upon, the interest of the Insurance Company in the premises or other property covered by this mortgage, or its ownership or interest in this mortgage, or in the note herein described, or any other indebtedness hereby secured, whether such tax be for state or local purposes, or in the event of any change in any of the laws now in force providing for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by mortgage, then the whole of the unpaid indebtedness secured by this mortgage shall, at the option of the Insurance Company and without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable and the Insurance Company may institute foreclosure proceedings.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these Presents, that if the Mortgagors do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid into the Insurance Company the debt represented by the aforesaid note, with interest thereon, in accordance with its terms and any and all other payments which may be due and payable hereunder when due, and shall faithfully perform all the covenants and agreements herein contained, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the parties hereto that the Mortgagors shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the aforesaid premises until default shall be made as herein provided.

The covenants and agreements hereby contained shall bind, and the benefits and powers thereof herein conferred shall inure to the respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the parties hereto.
