PROVIDED ALWAYS, NEVERTHELESS, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these presents, that if we the said mortgagor... do and shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the said debt or sum of money aforesaid, with interest thereon, if any shall be due, according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, then this deed of bargain and sale shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED, by and between the said parties, that we the mortgagor... are to hold and enjoy the said premises until default of payment shall be made.

And if at any time any part of said debt, interest, taxes or fire insurance premiums thereon, be past due and unpaid, we hereby, without notice or further proceedings, assign the rents and profits of the above described premises to the said mortgagee, or his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns (provided the premises herein described are occupied by a tenant), and should said premises be occupied by the mortgagor herein and said payments become past due and unpaid, then we do hereby agree that said mortgagee his Heirs and Assigns, may apply to any Judge of the Circuit Court of said State, at chambers or otherwise, or to any Judge of the County Court in any County which has a County Court, for the appointment of a receiver, with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, applying the net proceeds (after paying the cost of collection) upon said debt, interest, costs and expenses without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually collected.
