until said debt, and all interest and amounts due thereon, shall have been paid in full, then this deed of trust and bargain shall become null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

And it is further agreed by and between the said parties hereto, that the said mortgagors, are to hold and enjoy the said premises until default of payment shall be made. But if we shall make default in the payment of said monthly installments, or shall make default in any of the covenants and provisions hereinabove set out for a space of thirty days, then and in such event, the Association may, at its option, declare the whole amount hereunder at once due and payable, together with costs and a reasonable attorney's fee, and shall have the right to foreclose its mortgage.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands and seal, this the 25th day of September, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-two, and in the One Hundred and year of the Independence of the United States of America.
