AFFIDAVIT

I, Annie Belle Hall Carey, am the daughter of the late J. B. Hall. I was also his personal secretary and as such, kept all of his business records, including real estate mortgages and, thus, I was familiar with the status of all real estate mortgages held by the said J. B. Hall.

It has come to my attention that a mortgage given to the said J. B. Hall by Edward M. Turner and Kathleen M. Turner, recorded in the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County in R. E. M. Volume 590 at Page 451, on March 26, 1954, covering lot 117, section 2, of Monaghan Mill Village is still open on the records in the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County.

A thorough examination of the records kept by me of the real estate mortgages held by the said J. B. Hall shows that the mortgage referred to above was paid off on December 24, 1955, and presumably the satisfied mortgage was sent to the mortgagor and never satisfied by them. I have been informed that said satisfied mortgage has been misplaced and cannot be found. I make this statement to show that said mortgage was paid off so far as my records concerning the business affairs of J. B. Hall are concerned.
