

2. That there is hereby assigned, set aside, and appropriated out of the first weekly revenues of the Church an amount as provided for in the said indenture, Exhibit A.

3. That Tarrant State Bank, 1001 E. Berry, Fort Worth, Texas, is hereby appointed and named the paying agent for said bond issue.

That the sole function of said agent shall be to make timely principal and interest payments on the bond issue with the funds on deposit in the special interest and sinking fund account provided for herein.

That said paying agent shall have no trust responsibility and no liability whatsoever, save and except for those liabilities which said agent may incur by reason of its own negligence. That the Church Treasurer shall at all times, when requested to do so furnish full and complete information pertaining to this bond issue to said paying agent and shall, without further authorization, execute all necessary documents with reference thereto.

That said paying agent is hereby authorized to disclose information as to the status of the aforesaid special interest and sinking fund account to interested parties upon request.

That the Church does hereby agree to promptly pay from its general funds all paying agency charges made by said paying agent including any and all exchange charges that said paying agent may make for remitting any bonds or interest coupons to other banks.

That said paying agent may, at its option, on thirty (30) days' advance notice to the Church, withdraw as paying agent for the bond issue and the Church shall deliver any proper and necessary paying agency release to said agent on demand, whereupon the only liability of said agent shall be to hand over the funds on deposit in the aforesaid special interest and sinking fund account at that time to such other paying agent as the Church may appoint and name as successor paying agent for the bond issue. Further, it shall be the duty of the Church to notify all known bondholders as to the appointment and the name of the successor paying agent.
