

And the said mortgagor... to insure the house and buildings... in company... satisfactory to the mortgagee... and keep the same insured from loss or damage... by fire and such other perils as the mortgagee may require... And if at any time any part of said debt, or interest thereon, be past due and unpaid, I hereby assign the rents and profits of the above described premises to said mortgagee its Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, and agree that any Judge of the Circuit Court of said State may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver, with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, apply the net proceeds thereafter (after paying costs of collection) upon said debt, interest, costs or expenses; without liability to account for anything more than the rents and profits actually collected.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these Presents, that if I, the said mortgagor, do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the debt or sum of money aforesaid, with interest thereon, if any be due, according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, then this deed of bargain and sale shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the said parties that said mortgagor Doris W. Gault to hold and enjoy the said Premises until default of payment shall be made. IN WITNESS WHEREOF this 5th day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and sixty-six (1966) and Ninetieth year of the Independence of the United States of America.
