

mailing given by registered or certified mail to the holder or holders thereof not less than thirty days prior to the date fixed for redemption shall be sufficient and published notice of the call for redemption need not be given. All Bonds so called for redemption will cease to bear interest on the specified redemption date provided funds for their redemption are on deposit at the place of payment at that time, and shall no longer be protected by the Indenture and shall not be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of the Indenture. If, because of the temporary or permanent suspension of the publication or general circulation of any newspaper or financial journal or for any other reason, it is impossible or impractical to publish such notice of call for redemption in the manner herein provided, then such publication in lieu thereof as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall constitute a sufficient publication of notice.

This Bond and the series of which it forms a part as may be outstanding from time to time are issued pursuant to and in full compliance with the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, particularly Act No. 103 of the Acts and Joint Resolutions of South Carolina, 1967, and pursuant to resolution of the County Board of Commissioners of said County adopted and approved on the 12 day of December, 1967, which resolution authorizes the execution and delivery of the Indenture. This Bond and the issue of which it forms a part and the interest coupons appertaining hereto are special obligations and shall never constitute an indebtedness of the County within the meaning of any state constitutional or statutory provision or limitation, but are payable solely out of the revenues and other amounts derived from the leasing of the Project financed through the issuance of the Bonds and which has been leased to the Lessee. The Bonds and the interest coupons appertaining thereto do
