ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.01. Where any instrument is required or permitted to be executed under the terms of this Indenture by the holders of bonds, such instrument may be executed in as many different counterparts as may be necessary or convenient and all such counterparts shall be taken as constituting a single instrument joined in by the persons executing such counterparts.

Section 9.02. The fact and date of the execution of any instrument under the provisions of this Indenture may be proved by the certificate of any officer in any jurisdiction who by the laws thereof is authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds within such jurisdiction, that the person signing such instrument acknowledged before him the execution thereof, or may be proved by an affidavit of a witness to such execution sworn to before such officer.

Section 9.03. Where the Trustee or the County shall be entitled to have verified the ownership of any bond or bonds, the ownership of any bond which is at the time registered as to principal, shall be established by reference to the Registrar's registration books. As to any bonds not so registered, the amount and numbers of the bonds held by any person executing any instrument as a bondholder, and the date of his holding the same, may be proved by a certificate executed by any responsible bank or trust company showing that on the date therein mentioned such person had on deposit with, exhibited to such bank or trust company the bonds described in such certificate.
