If the holders of at least 75% in aggregate principal amount of the bonds outstanding shall have consented to and approved such amendment or amendments as herein provided, no holder of any bond or coupon, whether or not such holder shall have consented to or shall have revoked any consent as in this section provided, shall have any right to prevent the execution of the supplemental indenture incorporating such amendment or amendments, to object to any of the terms or provisions therein contained or to the operation thereof or to enjoin or restrain the County from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof.

Any consent given by the holder of a bond pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be irrevocably for a period of twelve months from the date of publication of the notice described above and shall be conclusive and binding upon all future holders of the same bond during such period. Such consent may be revoked at any time after twelve months from the date of the publication of such notice by the holder who gave such consent or by a successor in title by filing notice of such revocation with said Secretary, but such revocation shall not be effective if the holders of 75% in aggregate principal amount of the bonds outstanding have prior to the attempted revocation consented to and approved the amendment or amendments referred to in such revocation.
