

B. This trust shall terminate when the Beneficiary shall attain the age of twenty-five ( 25) years, and the entire trust estate, as it shall then exist, both principal and income, shall be paid over and distributed to the Beneficiary, free and discharged of all trust.

C. If the Beneficiary shall die before attaining the age of twenty-five ( 25) years, the entire trust estate, as it shall then exist, both principal and income, shall be divided into as many equal shares as shall equal the number of issue of the Beneficiary then living; and one such equal share shall be set apart and held as a separate trust for the benefit of each such issue of the Beneficiary then living, and disposed of as follows:

(1) The Trustee may at any time and from time to time during the term of this Trust, distribute to, or expend for the benefit of, the issue for whom such trust fund shall have been set apart, until such issue shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years, all or any portion of the current and accumulated income from such separate trust and the principal thereof, in such amounts and manner as the Trustee shall determine in his discretion to be required for the support, education, maintenance or medical care of such issue, or to maintain such issue's accustomed standard of living. Any amount of income which the Trustee shall determine not to distribute to or expend for the benefit of such issue may be accumulated.

(2) Upon such issue attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the entire trust estate of such separate trust, as it shall then exist, both principal and income shall be paid over and distributed to such issue, free and discharged of all trust.

(3) If any such issue for whom a Trust fund shall have been set apart shall die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, leaving issue surviving him, the separate Trust for any
