

thirty and not more than sixty days prior to the date fixed for redemption as aforesaid shall be sufficient, and published notice of the call for redemption need not be given, and failure duly to give such notice by mailing, or any defect in the notice, to the registered holder of any Bond designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Bond. All Bonds so called for redemption shall cease to bear interest on the specified redemption date, provided funds for their redemption are on deposit at the place of payment at that time, and shall no longer be protected by the Indenture and shall not be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of the Indenture. If, because of the temporary or permanent suspension of the publication or general circulation of any such newspaper or financial journal or for any other reason, it is impossible or impractical to publish such notice or call for redemption in the manner herein provided, then such publication in lieu thereof as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall constitute a sufficient publication of notice. Each notice shall specify the numbers of the Bonds being called, if less than all of the Bonds are being called, the redemption date, and the place or places where amounts due upon such redemption will be payable. Such notice shall further state that payment of the applicable redemption price plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption will be made upon presentation and surrender of the Bonds.
