PERSONALLY appeared before me Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, by it's duly authorized officers, who after being duly sworn, depose and say that Metropolitan Life Insurance Company is and was the bona fida owner of the mortgage herein described and that the same has not been assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of except to mark the same paid in full and satisfied and returned to the proper person and that upon information and belief said mortgage, which had been duly satisfied, has apparently been lost or destroyed by the attorney handling the same, as recited above, and that it appears that after dilligent search the mortgage cannot be found; that Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, being the record owner, has the authority to mark said mortgage satisfied and did do so and, likewise, has the authority to authorize the Register of Mesne Conveyance to cancel the same of record.
