

believed by him to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. In all cases where this Deed of Trust does not make other express provision as to the evidence on which the Trustee may act or refrain from acting, the Trustee shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting under any provision of this Deed of Trust in reliance upon a certificate as to the existence or non-existence of any fact or facts supplied by the Church.

j) All monies received by the Trustee under or pursuant to any provisions of this Deed of Trust shall be held by the Trustee in trust for the purposes for which they were paid except these funds need not be segregated in any manner from any other monies except to the extent required by law, and may be deposited by the Trustee, under such general conditions as may be prescribed by law, and the Trustee shall not be liable for any interest thereon.

k) The Trustee or any successor may resign and be discharged from the trust hereby created by giving notice thereof to the Church specifying the date when such resignation shall take effect, and by publishing such notice once a week for three successive calendar weeks (the first such publication to be not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the date so specified) in a newspaper of general circulation in the County and State aforesaid. Such resignation shall take effect on the date specified in such notice unless previously a successor shall have been appointed as hereinafter provided, in which event such resignation shall take effect upon the appointment of such successor.

l) In case of vacation of the office of Trustee by reason of resignation or for any other reason, then and in every event a successor or successors may be appointed by a majority vote of the members of the Church present at a business session called for that purpose, and such appointment evidenced by a written resolution and recorded as an Amendment and Supplemental Deed of Trust in the office of the recorder of deeds wherever this Deed of Trust is recorded. In case a new Trustee is not so appointed within thirty (30) days after the vacancy in the office of Trustee, the Church or any other interested party may apply to the court of competent jurisdiction in the County and State of the State of South Carolina, for the appointment of a new Trustee or Trustees and
