

for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or shall consent to the appointment of a receiver or trustee or liquidator of all of its property or the major part thereof; or (e) default shall be made in the due observance or performance of any other of the covenants, agreements or conditions hereinbefore or hereinafter contained, required to be kept or performed or observed by the Mortgagor, then and in every such case the whole of the indebtedness hereby secured shall, at once, at the option of the Mortgagee, become immediately due and payable without notice to Mortgagor. If while any insurance proceeds or condemnation awards are being held by the Mortgagee to reimburse Mortgagor for the cost of rebuilding or restoration of buildings or improvements on the Premises, as set forth in Paragraph 6 or 19 hereof, the Mortgagee shall be or become entitled to, and shall accelerate the indebtedness secured hereby, then and in such event, the Mortgagee shall be entitled to apply all such insurance proceeds and condemnation awards then held by it in reduction of the indebtedness hereby secured and any excess held by it over the amount of indebtedness then due hereunder shall be returned to Mortgagor or any party entitled thereto without interest.

Foreclosure; Expense of Litigation

14. When the indebtedness hereby secured, or any part thereof, shall become due, whether by acceleration or otherwise, Mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof for such indebtedness or part thereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee for attorneys' fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs, and costs (which
