(9) To use the property only for lawful purposes and to maintain the property;

(10) To pay when due all taxes, liens, judgments, assessments and charges and to furnish to the Government, upon demand, receipts evidencing such payments;

(11) To keep the property insured as required by and in such manner as required by the Government from time to time;

(12) To maintain such improvements on the property in good repair and make such repairs required by the Government from time to time; and to allow the Government or its agents to enter upon the property at any reasonable time for the purpose of inspecting the property and for the purpose of making any repairs, improvements, or replacements thereon that the Government may deem necessary to protect the security hereof; and not to abandon the property. Except as provided in the Act, not to commit waste, permit impairment or deterioration of the property, or change the character or use of the property without the written consent of the Government, and not to sell, lease or otherwise transfer the property or any part thereof without the written consent of the Government. Borrower agrees that any violation of this covenant shall be waste. Borrower agrees that the property is not now and will not be used principally or substantially for farming purposes and that the property will not be used principally or substantially for farming purposes.
