INSTRUCTIONS

The Mortgagor must subscribe his name to the foregoing mortgage in the space provided therefor, in the presence of two witnesses, who must also subscribe their names in the spaces provided for their signatures. One of said subscribing witnesses, must make and subscribe his name to the affidavit or probate at the foot of the mortgage. The officer before whom said affidavit is made must subscribe the same over his official title and affix his seal thereto.

If the Mortgagor is married, his wife must renounce dower in the manner and form indicated at the end of the mortgage under the heading "Renunciation of Dower." Her name must be inserted in the space provided therefor in the body of the certificate of renunciation, and she must also subscribe her name thereto on the line provided for her signature, using her own given name, for example: Mary Doe, not Mrs. John Doe. The officer must also subscribe his name over his official title, and must affix his seal to said certificate.

If said affidavit or renunciation of dower is made outside of South Carolina, it must be taken by a Notary Public or a Clerk of Court of Record or a Commissioner of Deeds for South Carolina whose official seal must be impressed thereon.

If the Mortgagor is a man and has no living wife, his status should be indicated following his name on the first line of the mortgage on page 1, thus: "Whereas, I, John Doe, an unmarried man" or "John Doe, a widower, of the County and State," etc.
