The aforesaid payments are to be applied first to interest at the rate stipulated above and the balance on account of unpaid principal. Provided, that upon the sale, assignment, transfer or assumption of this mortgage to or by a third party without the written consent of the Bank, the entire unpaid balance of the note secured by this mortgage, with accrued interest, shall become due and payable in full or may, at the Bank's option, be continued on such terms, conditions, and rates of interest as may be acceptable to the Bank.

Said note provides that past due principal and/or interest shall bear interest at the rate of % per annum, or if left blank, at the maximum legal rate in South Carolina, as reference being had to said note will more fully appear; default in any payment of either principal or interest to render the whole debt due at the option of the mortgagee or holder hereof. Forbearance to exercise this right with respect to any failure or breach of the maker shall not constitute a waiver of the right as to any subsequent failure or breach. Both principal and interest are payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at the office of the Mortgagee in Greenville, South Carolina, or at such other place as the holder hereof may from time to time designate in writing.
