

ARTICLE FIVE
SECURITY AGREEMENT

5.01 Grant of Security Interest. With respect to the real and personal property hereinabove described this Mortgage and Security Agreement shall constitute a security agreement between Mortgagor and Mortgagee, and, cumulative of all other rights of Mortgagee hereunder, Mortgagee shall have all of the rights conferred upon secured parties by the Uniform Commercial Code (South Carolina). Mortgagor will execute and deliver to Mortgagee to establish and maintain the validity and priority of the Mortgagee's security interest in such property such financing statements to be executed in the manner and form required by law and to the satisfaction of Mortgagee. Mortgagor agrees to pay Mortgagee's charge to the maximum amount permitted by law, for any statement by Mortgagee regarding the obligations secured by this Mortgage and Security Agreement requested by Mortgagor or on behalf of Mortgagor. On demand, Mortgagor will promptly pay all costs and expenses of filing statements, continuation statements, partial releases, and termination statements deemed necessary or appropriate by Mortgagee to establish and maintain the validity and priority of the security interest of Mortgagee, or any modification thereof, and all costs and expenses of any searches reasonably required by Mortgagee. Mortgagee may exercise any or all of the remedies of a secured party available to it under the Uniform Commercial Code (South Carolina) with respect to such property, and it is expressly agreed in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code (South Carolina), 10 days' notice by Mortgagee to Mortgagor shall be deemed to be reasonable notice under any provision of the Uniform Commercial Code (South Carolina) requiring such notice; provided, however, that Mortgagee may at its option dispose of the collateral in accordance with Mortgagee's rights and remedies in respect to the real property pursuant to the provisions of this Mortgage and Security Agreement, in lieu of proceeding under the Uniform Commercial Code (South Carolina).

Some of the items of property described herein are goods that are or are to become fixtures related to the real estate described herein, and it is intended that, as to those goods, this Mortgage and Security Agreement shall be effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its filing for record in the real estate records of Greenville County, South Carolina. Information concerning the security interest created by this instrument may be obtained from the Mortgagee, as secured party, or the Mortgagor, as debtor, at the addresses first shown above.

5.02 Removal of Property. Except as otherwise provided in this Mortgage and Security Agreement, or the Loan Agreement, no fixture, personal property or other part of the Land or Improvements shall be removed, demolished or altered, without the prior written consent of Mortgagee. Mortgagor may sell or otherwise dispose of, free from lien of this Mortgage and Security Agreement, furniture, furnishings, equipment, tools, appliances, machinery, fixtures or appurtenances, subject to the lien hereof, which may become worn out, undesirable or obsolete only if they are replaced immediately with similar items of at least equal value which shall, without further action, become subject to the lien of this Mortgage and Security Agreement, except as otherwise provided in this Mortgage and Security Agreement or the Loan Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this instrument the day and year above first written.
