On January 31, 1970 Collins Motor Company received notes and mortgages from Richard C. Rouse in the amount of Thirty-one Thousand Four Hundred Sixty-one and No/100 ($31,461.00) Dollars recorded November 20, 1970 in the Greenville County R.M.C. Office in REM Book 1173 at Page 314; from Jack E. Collins in the amount of Seventy-nine Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty and No/100 ($79,830.00) Dollars dated January 31, 1970, recorded November 20, 1970 in the Greenville County R.M.C. Office in REM Book 1173 at Page 308 and from Bobby Joe Collins in the amount of Eighty-six Thousand Four Hundred Sixty and No/100 ($86,460.00) Dollars dated January 31, 1970 recorded November 20, 1970 in the Greenville County R.M.C. Office in REM Book 1173 at Page 311. On February 2, 1970, by duly executed and recorded articles of amendment the name of Collins Motor Company was changed to Collins Enterprises, Inc., a corporation. At that time the sole stock holders of Collins Enterprises, Inc. were Rufus C. Collins and Lois W. Collins, husband and wife. Subsequently, on August 8, 1970, Lois W. Collins and Rufus C. Collins died in a common disaster and the capital stock in Collins Enterprises, Inc. owned by Rufus C. Collins passed under the terms of his will to his wife's estate. On September 11, 1975, Collins Enterprises, Inc. was dissolved and the assets of said corporation distributed to the estate of Lois W. Collins. The within assignment is therefore made by the legal representatives of the estate of Lois W. Collins, namely, The South Carolina National Bank and Bobby Joe Collins as co-executors and co-trustees.

Dated this the 4th day of March, 1977.
