

10. In case of any sale under this Mortgage, by virtue of judicial proceedings or otherwise, the premises may be sold in one parcel and as an entirety or in such parcels, manner or order as the mortgagee in its sole discretion may elect.

11. In the event of the passage after the date of this mortgage of any law of the State of South Carolina deducting from the value of real property for the purpose of taxation any lien thereon, or changing in any way the laws for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by the mortgage for State or local purposes, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, and imposing a tax, either directly or indirectly, on this Mortgage or the note, the holder of this Mortgage and of the debt which it secures shall have the right to declare the principal sum and the interest due on a date to be specified by not less than 30 days written notice to be given to the mortgagor by the mortgagee, provided, however, that such election shall be ineffective if the mortgagor is permitted by law to pay the whole of such tax in addition to all other payments required hereunder and if the mortgagor, prior to such specified date, does pay such tax and agrees to pay any such tax when thereafter levied or assessed against the premises, and such agreement shall constitute a modification of this mortgage.

12. If the mortgagee shall incur or expend any sums, including reasonable attorney's fees, whether in connection with any action or proceeding or not, to sustain the lien of the mortgage or its priority, or to protect or enforce any of its rights hereunder, or to recover any indebtedness hereby secured, and in connection therewith for any title examination or title insurance policy relating to the title to the premises, all such sums shall on notice and demand be paid by the mortgagor, together with the interest thereon at the rate applicable under this note from and after maturity, and shall be a lien on the premises, prior to any right or title to, interest in, or claim upon, the premises subordinate to the lien of this mortgage, and shall be deemed to be secured by this mortgage and evidenced by the note; and in any action or proceeding to foreclose this mortgage, or to recover or collect the debt secured thereby, the provisions of law respecting the recovery of costs, disbursements, and allowances shall prevail unaffected by this covenant.

13. The mortgagor will maintain the premises in good condition and repair, will not commit or suffer any waste of the premises and will comply with, or cause to be complied with, all statutes, ordinances and requirements of any governmental authority relating to the premises; the mortgagor will promptly repair, restore, replace or rebuild any part of the premises now or hereafter subject to the lien of this mortgage which may be damaged or destroyed by any casualty whatsoever or which may be affected by any proceeding of the character referred to in Article 14; the mortgagor will complete and pay for, within a reasonable
