(9) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and husbandmanlike manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe, and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit waste, lessening or impairment of the security covered hereby, or without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.

(10) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.

(11) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary or incidental to the protection of the land and property hereof and to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions hereof and of the note and any supplementary agreement whether before or after default, including but not limited to costs of evidence of title to surveys of the property, costs of recording toward other instruments, attorneys' fees, trustee's fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.

(12) Neither the property nor any portion thereof or interest therein shall be leased, assigned, sold, transferred, or encumbered, voluntarily or otherwise, without the written consent of the Government. The Government shall have the sole and exclusive rights as mortgagor hereunder, including but not limited to the power to grant consents, partial releases, subordinations, and satisfactions, and no insured holder shall have any right, title or interest in or to the fee or any benefits hereof.

(13) At all reasonable times the Government and its agents may inspect the property to ascertain whether the covenants and agreements contained herein or in any supplementary agreement are being performed.

(14) The Government may extend and defer the maturity of and renew and reschedule the debt evidenced by the note or any indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, release it from liability to the Government any part, so liable thereon, release portions of the property from and subordinate the benefits hereof, and waive any other rights hereunder, without affecting the tenor or priority hereof or the liability of the Government, Borrower or any other party for payment of the note or indebtedness secured hereby except as specified by the Government in writing.

(15) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain a loan from a production credit association, a Federal land bank, or other respectable cooperative or private credit source, at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will, upon the Government's request, apply for and accept such loan in sufficient amount to pay the note and any indebtedness secured hereby, and to pay for any stock necessary to be purchased in a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.

(16) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate or under any personal property or other security instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.

(17) NON PAYMENT OF DEBT DUE. Should the performance or discharge of any obligation in this instrument or secured by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared incompetent, a bankrupt, or insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government at its option, with or without notice, may (a) declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereof, secured immediately due and payable, (b) for the account of Borrower incur and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, (c) upon application by him and production of this instrument, without notice of hearing, if said application have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, (d) cancel the instrument as provided herein, by law, and collect accounts and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by present or future law.

(18) The proceeds of liquidation sale shall be applied in the following order to the payment of: (a) costs and expenses incident to enforcing or complying with the provisions hereof, (b) any conditions required by law of a competent court to be so paid, (c) the debt evidenced by the note and all indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, (d) expenses incurred by the Government and claimed to be so paid, (e) at the Government's option, any other indebtedness from the date when so incurred by the Government, and (f) any balance to Borrower. At foreclosure or other sale of all or any part of the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger and may pay the Government's bid, the purchase price to be deducted such amount of any debts of Borrower which may be incurred by the Government in the order prescribed above.

(19) Borrower agrees that the Government will not be bound by any present or future State laws, or providing for valuation, appraisal, or instead of exemption of the property, except during maintenance of and a trial for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount thereof on the time within which such action may be brought, for present or future State laws of limitation, or for all laws and rights of redemption or reversion, full, with all forced sale, concerning the property in which the Government may be compelled to impose, including the interest rate it may charge, as a condition of applying a transfer of title to the property to new Borrower. Borrower expressly waives the benefits of any such State law. Borrower hereby relinquishes, waives, and conveys all right to institute, prosecute, or maintain, to the ultimate of defense, all suits, and causes of action, including the ultimate of defense, all suits, and causes.

(20) If any part of the lands for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, construction or repair of property to be used as an owner-occupied dwelling thereon called "the dwelling," and if Borrower intends to sell or rent the dwelling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so, (a) neither Borrower nor any co-tenant need to act for him, wall, after receipt of a bona fide offer, refuse to enter into a contract for the sale or rental of the dwelling or will otherwise make unavailable or deny the dwelling to anyone because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, and (b) Borrower will be relieved of all legal and moral obligations relating to the dwelling to the extent of any restrictive covenants on dwelling relating to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, and so forth.

(21) This instrument shall be subject to the present regulations of the Farmers Home Administration, and to its future regulations not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof.

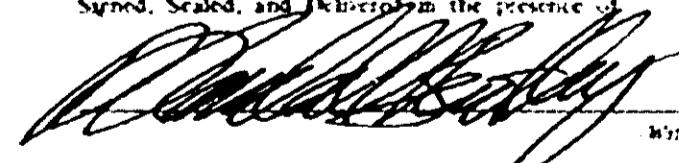

(22) Notices given hereunder shall be sent by certified mail, return, unless so required by law, addressed, unless and until some other address is designated in writing, in the case of the Government to Farmers Home Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, at Columbia, South Carolina 29201, and in the case of Borrower to him at the address shown in the Farmers Home Administration Finance Office records which is usually will be the same as the post office address shown above.

(23) If any provision of this instrument or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity will not affect other provisions or applications of the instrument which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions hereof are declared to be severable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Borrower has hereunto set Borrower's hand(s) and sealed this 22nd day of December, 1977.
