SECTION 5.14. Certain Bonds Not Considered To Be Outstanding. In determining whether the holders of the requisite aggregate principal amount of Bonds have concurred in any demand, request, direction, consent or waiver under the Indenture, Bonds which are owned by the County, the Tenant or by any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under common control or affiliated with the Tenant shall be disregarded and deemed not to be Outstanding for the purpose of any such determination; provided that for the purpose of determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any such demand, request, direction, consent or waiver, only Bonds which the Trustee knows to be so owned shall be disregarded. Bonds so owned which have been pledged in good faith may be regarded as Outstanding for the purposes of this section if the pledgee shall establish to the satisfaction of the Trustee (i) the pledgee's right to vote such Bonds and (ii) that the pledgee is not a person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under common control or affiliated with the Tenant. In case of a dispute as to such right any decision by the Trustee taken upon the advice of counsel shall be full protection to the Trustee.
