

whatsoever or which may be affected by any taking by eminent domain by any public or quasi-public authority; that the Mortgagor will complete without interruption any structure at any time in the process of construction on the premises and will pay any debt, claim or other charge for repairs or improvements that may have been made or may hereafter be made on, and which may become a lien against, the premises or any part thereof, and will not permit any lien or encumbrance of any kind which may be or become superior to this mortgage to accrue or remain on the premises or any part thereof; in the event of default hereunder the Mortgagee may, at its option, enter upon said premises, make whatever repairs are necessary or complete the construction work and charge the expenses for such repairs or for the completion of construction to the mortgagee debt and/or declare the indebtedness secured hereby due and payable.

7. That the Mortgagor, at the option of the Mortgagee, will pay to the Mortgagee all moneys received as compensation not to exceed the outstanding indebtedness, for the taking of the premises or any part thereof by virtue of the right of eminent domain or in any other manner whatsoever and all moneys received as damages for injury sustained by the premises or any part thereof and in any such event, the Mortgagee may, if in its sole discretion it determines that its security is impaired, elect to declare the whole of the remaining indebtedness, if any, immediately due and payable.

8. That, together with, and in addition to, the payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note secured hereby, the Mortgagor will pay to the Mortgagee, at the Mortgagee's option, on such payment date, until the indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full, a proportionate sum of the annual
