The proceeds of said sale shall be applied, first to the expense of advertising, selling and conveying said land and premises, including a reasonable attorney's fee and the cost of preparing any evidence of title in connection with such sale; second, to the payment of any amounts that may have been expended, or that are then necessary to expend, in paying any insurance, taxes, or encumbrances on said land and premises; third, to the payment of the Promissory Note and interest thereon secured hereby; and finally, the balance, if any, shall be paid to the Mortgagors. Mortgagors shall be liable for any deficiency remaining after the sale of the premises, and application of the proceeds of said sale as aforesaid, together with interest thereon at the same rate as specified in the Promissory Note secured hereby. The Mortgagors further agree that Mortgagor, its legal representative or assigns, shall have the right to bid and purchase in the event of a sale hereunder, and that the Mortgagors shall surrender possession of the hereinabove described land and premises to the purchaser immediately, after said sale, in the event such possession has not previously been surrendered by the Mortgagors.
