(d) Any claim, lien or charge shall be levied or imposed upon the Collateral, and such claim, lien or charge shall not be discharged or removed within ten days after the Bank shall give notice in writing to the County of the creation of this lien or charge and shall demand its removal.

SECTION 6. BANK'S RIGHTS.

The County agrees that when any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing:

(a) The Bank shall have the rights, duties and remedies of a secured party and the County shall have the rights and duties of a debtor under the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of South Carolina, regardless of where action may be taken to enforce those rights and duties; and

(b) The Bank may, by notice in writing to the County, declare the entire unpaid balance of the Anticipation Note to be immediately due and payable; and thereupon the entire unpaid balance, together with all accrued interest, shall be immediately due and payable; and

(c) The Bank, personally or by agents or attorneys, shall have the right (subject to compliance with any mandatory legal requirements) to take immediate possession of the Collateral; and

(d) The Bank may (subject to compliance with any mandatory legal requirements) sell and dispose of the Collateral at public or private sale, and either for cash or on credit and on such terms as the Bank may determine, and at any place; provided,
