Section 4.02. Condemnation. If any of the trust estate of the Obligor is taken by condemnation proceedings, the Trustee may accept any award made therein, if approved by the Obligor as representing its fair value. If such award is accepted, the Trustee shall release the property so taken upon receipt by the Trustee of the amount of such award.

Section 4.03. Moneys Received by Trustee. Any moneys received by the Trustee pursuant to this Article shall be disposed of by the Trustee according to the provisions of Article V hereof.
