

SECTION VIII

That the Issuer hereby reserves the right and privilege of redeeming any of the several bonds issued hereunder prior to the stated maturity date thereof by paying to the owner or owners of such bond or bonds the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest. Such redemption, however, may occur only on a semi-annual interest payment date for the simple interest. The amount due shall be determined by a table of factors printed on the front of each bond. The Paying Agent for the bond issue and the owner or owners of such bond or bonds, if such owner or owners are known, shall be given written notice of such redemption mailed to the owner's or owners' address as it appears on the bond records of the Issuer not less than thirty (30) days prior to such redemption. Notice of such redemption shall also be given by the Issuer by publication thereof once each week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date of redemption in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the Issuer is located. Such notice by publication shall be deemed sufficient notice to all bond holders not receiving written notice from the Issuer. Redemption of such bond or bonds shall be made only through the Paying Agent for this bond issue. Any bond or bonds called for redemption in accordance herewith shall not yield interest from and after the date fixed for redemption.

SECTION IX

That in the event any one of the several bonds issued hereunder is lost, stolen or destroyed, a Replacement Certificate for such bonds may be issued upon sworn affidavit of the owner of the bonds, such affidavit identifying the bond and stating the circumstances under which it was lost, stolen or destroyed. Such affidavit shall also contain an agreement indemnifying the Issuer and the Paying Agent for this bond issue against all losses by reason of the issuance of such Replacement Certificate. Each Replacement Certificate shall identify the original bond which it replaces and shall be signed by the same officers of the Issuer who signed the original bond or their successors in office.
