

6) I further find that the Petitioner is not entitled to an increase in support, and the payments are to remain the same as previously ordered by this Court.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the Respondent be found in contempt of Court for his violation of the Property Settlement Agreement and in violating the mutual restraining order on June 28, 1981. It is further ordered that the imposition of any sentence be suspended until further order of the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Respondent may purge himself of contempt of Court relative to the violation of the Property Settlement Agreement by reacquiring Lot 48 and effecting a fee simple title by deed in Lot 48 of an undivided one-half interest to the Petitioner and fully restoring the right of her to use the driveway running across this lot. It is further ordered that in the event that the Respondent cannot deed the property to the Petitioner as above outlined, with full rights to use the driveway, then the Petitioner is granted an equitable lien against the Respondent's undivided one-half interest in the real estate and the share of the proceeds which he will be entitled to from the sale of the house and lot located on Clearview Circle, Travelers Rest, South Carolina.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Respondent pay Petitioner's counsel the sum of $150.00, which represents a part of his attorney fee.
