DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

SECTION 6.01. Events of Default; Acceleration; Waiver. In case one or more of the following events, in this Indenture referred to as the "Events of Default," shall happen and be continuing, that is to say, if

(a) payment of the principal of the Note or premium, if any, shall not be made when the same shall become due and payable; or

(b) payment of an installment of interest on the Note shall not be made when the same shall become due and payable; or

(c) an event of default under the Agreement or the Guaranty shall occur; or

(d) the Issuer shall default in the due and punctual performance of any covenant, condition, agreement or provision contained in the Note or this Indenture on the part of the Issuer to be performed, and such default shall continue for 30 days after written notice specifying such default and requiring the same to be remedied shall have been given to the Issuer and the Corporation by the Lender by registered mail; provided, however, if the failure stated in the notice cannot be corrected within the applicable period, and the Lender consents to an extension of time, which consent will not unreasonably be withheld, for an additional 60 days it shall not constitute an Event of Default if corrective action is instituted by the Issuer or the Corporation within the applicable period and diligently pursued until the default is corrected;

then, in each such case, unless the principal of the Note shall have become due and payable otherwise than by acceleration, the Lender may by written notice given to the Issuer and the Corporation declare the Note to be due and payable immediately, and upon such declaration the principal, together with interest accrued thereon, shall become due and payable immediately at the place of payment provided in the said notice, anything in this Indenture or in the Note to the contrary notwithstanding.

With regard to any Event of Default concerning which notice is given to the Issuer and the Corporation under Section 6.01(d), the Issuer hereby grants the Corporation full authority for the account of the Issuer to the extent permitted by law to cure such default.
