1.07 Condemnation. If all or any part of the Mortgaged Property shall be damaged or taken through condemnation (which term when used herein shall include any damage or taking by any governmental authority or any other authority authorized by the laws of the state where the Land is located or the United States of America to so damage or take, and any transfer by private sale in lieu thereof), either temporarily or permanently, the entire indebtedness and other sums secured hereby shall, at the option of Mortgagee, become immediately due and payable. All such compensation awards, damages, claims, rights of action and proceeds, and any other payments or relief, and the right thereto, are hereby assigned by Mortgagor to Mortgagee, who, after deducting therefrom all its expenses including attorney's fees, may release any monies so received by it without affecting the lien of this Mortgage or may apply the same, in such manner as Mortgagee shall determine, to the reduction of the sums secured hereby and to any prepayment charge provided in the Note, this Mortgage or other instrument securing the Note. Any balance of such monies then remaining shall be paid to Mortgagor. Mortgagor agrees to execute such further assignments of any compensations, awards, damages, claims, rights of action and proceeds as Mortgagee may require.
